

Imago Americorps Member

About the Position

The Imago Americorps members are critical members of the Imago team. They are involved in all the aspects of Imago's programs and missions. This is an excellent opportunity to learn and practice mission based, aspirational work. If you are interested in sustainability, youth education, connecting with community, habitat restoration, nature preserve management, and much more, Imago is a place for you. You'll have an opportunity to learn and practice several techniques and skills for doing authentic work to foster sustainability, community building, and nature connection.

Position Particulars

Here are some of the areas that the Americorps member will be involved with:

Youth Education

The largest component of this position involves our work with youth, either through a partner school (or agency) during the school year OR with campers during summertime. This work involves preparing, presenting, and evaluating a wide variety of hands-on, outdoor educational experiences.

Nature Preservation

Imago manages a 37 acre nature preserve as well as several natural areas and gardens at our partner schools. Americorps members will have an opportunity to be involved with many of the aspects of preserving and improving our natural learning areas. This can include maintenance and upkeep, design of new outdoor learning areas and habitat restoration.

Community Connection

Imago prides itself on being an organization rooted in community and partnerships. As such, Imago offers several programs, events, workshops and more to connect community members to nature, sustainability and each other. Work in this area could include planning and presenting community events as well as developing other experiences centered around sustainability and community.

Qualifications

The ideal candidate will:

- Be comfortable teaching elementary children
- Have a passion for nature and the environment
- Be capable working in hot, cold, rainy, muddy and buggy conditions
- Be self-driven while also collaborating with several partners
- Be an excellent presenter and communicator

About Imago

Imago is a 44-year old environmental education nonprofit organization with a long history of providing quality, hands-on programming on green living and sustainability. Imago's focus is on sustainability in urban areas and on providing solutions that are accessible and fit people who live in urban neighborhoods. Imago serves people of all ages from summer camps for children through workshops for adults. Imago also protects and manages 37 acres of urban forest, 7 minutes from downtown Cincinnati. The urban forest is managed as a nature preserve and is free and open to the public. For more information on Imago, click here.
